

Childrens Department.

LIMESTONE HILL, W. VA., Oct. 20th.

DEAR EDITOR:—I will write a story of David. After Samuel had left Saul the Lord told him to fill his horn with oil and go to Jesse the Bethlehemite because he had chosen a king from among his sons. I will answer Clemma Henrick's question. There are 181,258 words in the New Testament.

VRALA BOORD.

ZANESVILLE, WELLS CO., IND.,
Oct. 12th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first letter for the EVANGELIST. I am ten years old. I go to school. My teacher's name is Mr. Reed; I like him very much. My studies are Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Geography, Grammar and Spelling. I have three quarters of a mile to go to school. We organized a King's Children Society. We have about thirty members in our society. Now I will tell you about the Juniors. Miss Dessie Hamilton is President and Miss Ida Firrel is Vice President. Miss Effie Gaskle is Secretary. I would like for other boys and girls to write to the EVANGELIST, so that we might find out how they are getting along with their Junior's work.

ALMIRA SMUTS.

You are doing very well for the first time and we shall be very glad to hear from you again. We like to hear such news as you report. Ed.

KUNKLE, OHIO, Oct. 11th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—As I did not get a letter written last month I will write two this month. There is a meeting near here tomorrow night to distribute the money to the cyclone sufferers. My brother Emsey is ten years old to day. I go to school most every day. My teacher's name is Mr. A. J. Brown. He is a real good teacher and I like him real well. He has taught our school for three years. Who was the man that prayed for long life?

PEARL YAGEL.

FALLS CITY, NEB., Oct. 14th, '94.

DEAR EDITOR:—"For whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken, even that he hath." From this we understand, the more we try to learn, the better we understand. Those people were hard-hearted, and did not listen what the preacher said to them. He also told them in another sermon, "the kingdom of heaven is like a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind. When it was full, they drew to shore, and gathered the good, but cast the bad away." Continued next month.

ADA JUDY.

ASHLAND, OHIO, Sept. 29th, 1894.

DEAR EVANGELIST:—I joined the King's Children last spring and I enjoy the meeting very much.

I lead the singing now, but I was president of the meeting not so very long ago.

I belong to the Congregational church, and am trying to work for Jesus.

NORA LEFEVRE.

Age 11 years, 4 months and 29 days.

TWELVE MILE, IND., Sept. 23th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—When Saul heard what David had said, he told him to go and fight the giant; but David had no sword or coat of iron, so Saul lent him his own armor, and his own sword and put a brass cap on his head. But David had not been used to wearing armor and he took it all off; he would not take a spear or sword. He went to the brook and chose five smooth stones and put them in a bag which he had.

BLANCH DALZELL.

AKRON, IND., Sept. 24th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—Our Sunday school closed yesterday for this summer. I was at Sunday school and there was preaching last night. My sister Effie and I are going up to Huntington to visit my brother and family. I will visit them a week, then I will have to come home and go to school. When I come back I will write another letter and tell you all about my visit.

DESSIE SAYGER.

I hope you will have a nice time, and enjoy yourself very much. When you return write about your trip and tell all the nice things about it you can. Ed.

SULLIVAN, OHIO, Sept. 27th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—My aunt and I are staying alone, for a while. My uncle has gone to the western part of the state, to attend the Hart reunion, and to see his parents. His father is 80 years old. My little cousin Georgia Garver is coming to see her grandma, and is going to stay a short time. She lives in Wooster. It is very nice weather for this time of the year. Good-bye.

MYRTLE S. HART.

WATERLOO, IOWA, Oct. 19th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—We are now enjoying the lovely weather of October. The yard is nearly covered with golden leaves. They look very pretty on the trees but they have outlived their usefulness for this summer. We enjoy the beautiful sunshine. When spring comes the trees will again don their beautiful foliage. We are glad for the beautiful seasons of the year. I will close by asking a question. What was the name of the tree that Adam was forbidden to eat of?

EDITH LICHTY.

WOODLAND, MICH., Sept. 29th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I will write another letter so you will not forget me. It is getting quite cold here now. I have had to miss two weeks of school because ma was sick, but she is getting better now and I can go to school again. We have thirty-six scholars in our school. We have only a little over three more weeks of school. I will ask a question. How many sons has Moses and what are their names?

We have cut all of our corn.

Your friend.

ADA CLUM.

STOCKPORT, IND., Sept. 27th, 1894.

DEAR READERS OF THE EVANGELIST:

We will soon have a change of editors. Wonder if he will grant us a page and make us all so welcome as Aunt Etta did. (See our letter in last paper. Ed.) Wishing him success and wishing Aunt Etta success in whatever undertaking she may be. I hope she will not fail to contribute a word of encouragement to our paper. I am in school now and we have such a good teacher. His name is Charlie Stover. On Saturday I take my music lesson. So you see I am kept very busy all week.

I am as ever,

IVY RENCH.

I shall not want: what'er is good,
Of daily bread or angels' food
Shall to my Father's child be sure,
So long as earth and heaven endure.

—Charles F. Deems.

GOOD MEN PROFITABLY EMPLOYED.

"Yes, sir, we have a number of grand, good men working for us, and they are making money, too, doing better for themselves than they could in any other line." That is about the way Mr. B. F. Johnson of the firm B. F. Johnson & Co., Richmond, Va., stated the case in referring to their advertisement for representatives to devote all or part of their time in the interest of their business.

A CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY.

I have had wonderful success selling Dish Washers. Have not made less than $8 any day, and some days $15. Nearly every family buys one. They are cheap, durable, and do the work perfectly. You can wash and dry the dishes for a family in two minutes, without touching your hands to a dish. I believe any lady or gentleman, anywhere, can do as well as I am doing, as I had no experience. Anyone can sell what everyone wants to buy, and every family seems to want a Dish Washer. Write to the Iron City Dish Washer Co., E. E. Pittsburg, Pa. They will send you full particulars and help you as they did me. I do not write my experience boastfully, but because I think it a duty I owe to others in these hard times.
